

COLLEGE of CHARLESTON

AFRICAN AMERICAN
STUDIES PROGRAM

Ansley Pope

Major: African American Studies and Women and Gender Studies

Ansley Pope is a double major in African American Studies and Women and Gender Studies. For the past four years, Pope has been a Bonner Leader, which is a College of Charleston program dedicated to cultivating both leadership and a life of service beyond academia. Throughout his four years at the College of Charleston, he has volunteered with Girls Rock Charleston, a nonprofit organization that empowers girls and trans* youth to become anti-racist, feminist leaders, and he is an active organizer for Southerners on New Ground (SONG), a regional organization dedicated to bringing together marginalized communities to work towards justice and liberation for all people.